Agenda

1. Apologies for absence
2. Declaration of interest
3. To consider the findings from the Open Day on the 13 May with Gilwern Roots.
4. Gilwern Roots propose to help the council find a management team for the centre. The council will remain financially responsible for the building (as they currently are), they will commit to repairing and improving the building so people can gain safe and functional access now, not just in the future. (Proposed by Gilwern Roots)
5. Support Gilwern Roots two more community events. We require the free use of at least the meeting room and toilets. (Proposed by Gilwern Roots)

5.1 Event1 The big cleanup work party, To clear out and reorganise the current centre de-cluttering and deep cleaning everything I preparation for a redecoration

5.2 Event 2 Party in the park, Music, bbq?, litter picking and family fun day

6. Gilwern Roots to set up a village newsletter supporting the council to allow for proper community engagement (in all areas, not just the hall). This will be part funded by the Community Council and our time will be free for the time being. (Proposed by Gilwern Roots)
7. Change handy man job to Community Hall co-ordinator Job description; manage maintenance under a certain price without consulting council. Be responsible for building presentation, marketing, booking, liase with cleaner and be the main contact for centre users (Proposed by Gilwern Roots)
8. To consider a time table and the way forward.
9. Recommendation to next council meeting.

Attached papers distributed with last agenda from Gilwern Roots
